

Community Vision Forum

Santa Barbara Public Library, Faulkner Gallery, Thursday, May 29, 2008

Qualities & Goals

Notes

Forum #4

Quality: Empowered

Goals: Excellent education with high achievement
Knowledge about birth care
Affordable and safe living environment
Parents engaged in children's lives
Adequate employment opportunities
Affordable childcare
People are socially engaged and interconnected
Community life and interaction
Interconnection between different groups and ages
Responsive, collaborative community
Willingness to work together across lines – government, business, education
Open lines of communication

Quality: Healthy

Goals: Universal healthcare
Access to nutritional food
Clean air/water
Physically active kids and families
Safe/secure
Decrease in chronic disease
Engaged parents

Quality: Secure/Safe

Goals: Affordable/safe living environment
Healthy

Schools/environment for education
Disaster preparedness
Positive family relationships

Quality: Creative

Goals: Wise use of resources (local – community gardens, etc.)
Music classes
Multi-generational engagement
Multi-ethnic engagement
Access to the Arts (art is not an “extra”)
Arts are valued
Parents and kids come together to “create”